

Who'd have thought time in prison could be rewarding?

Men and women required for Custodial Officer positions at the ACT's new correctional facility.

If you're interested in a new career direction, then consider the challenging and rewarding position of Custodial Officer.

No experience required – You'll get all the training you need prior to starting work. We will fund further studies, including certificates, diplomas and even a university degree.

A great salary – Your starting salary straight after training will be $44,980. Remember, there is significant room for regular salary increases within the ACT Corrective Services organisational structure. Also, employment options are flexible, and include casual and part-time positions, and shift-workers receive penalty rates.

Excellent work/ life balance – Enjoy seven weeks of leave per year and attractive shift-work arrangements. Casual or part-time employment are also options.

You'll make a difference – You'll help maintain a safe and secure environment for prisoners and contribute directly to their rehabilitation – it's a satisfying and rewarding experience!

To apply or register your interest today, call (02) 6205 1754 or visit www.cs.act.gov.au

Please note: Applications for the next training course in October must be lodged by Friday 24 August. Applications and expressions of interest can be lodged beyond that date for later courses.